Greetings in the matchless name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

I am reminded of that old song we used to sing, "Everyday is a day of Thanksgiving." This sentiment is more than true. While the world takes one day out of the year to be thankful, the Christian believer should be thankful every day.

We should always be in a state of Thanksgiving for the things God has done. This doesn't mean that we're completely oblivious to the day-to-day frustrations of life. It means, however, that we keep those frustrations in perspective. When gas prices rise, we should be thankful we even have transportation. When the line at the drive-thru is slow, we shouldn't get bent out of shape because we have the means to choose what we eat without wondering where our next meal will come from. When the cold air creeps in our house through a drafty window, we can give thanks unto God because we have shelter and are not outside in the cold.

The Bible tells us that, "In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (1 Thessalonians 5:18 NKJV). As I grow in faith, I'm learning how to let thanksgiving saturate my entire being. I admit, I sometimes let frustrations and feelings get the best of me causing my gratitude to skip a beat. I know I'm not quite where I need to be. Perhaps this is your testimony also. Nevertheless, we should strive each day to be more grateful as we aim to be more like Christ.

In this spirit of thanksgiving, we are thankful for those whose sincere sacrifice has paved a way for us. We honor Rev. Lawrence E. Presley and Sis. Jewel Presley who labored for 30 years in this ministry. Their leadership has blessed this church and so many lives. As Pastor Emeritus and First Lady Emeritus, we pause to give THANKS for all they have done.

As the year winds down, my prayer is that God helps us all be more grateful...truly grateful! And as we allow thanksgiving to saturate our hearts on the inside, we can demonstrate a lifestyle of gratefulness on the outside!

In Christian Service,

Rev. Christopher R. Boston, Pastor

Unisonous Scripture Readings

Institution of the Lord's Supper – 1 Corinthians 11:23-28 (1st Sunday)

23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread;

24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

25 In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

Rejoice in the Lord Always – Philippians 4:4-7 (2nd Sunday)

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!

5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God;

7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

His Mercy Endures – Psalm 107:1-8 (3rd Sunday)

1 Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

3 And gathered out of the lands, From the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desolate way; They found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, Their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, And He delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And He led them forth by the right way, That they might go to a city for a dwelling place.

8 Oh, that men would give thanks to the Lord for His goodness, And for His wonderful works to the children of men!

Let Christ Dwell in You – Colossians 3:15-17 (4th Sunday)

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Givers Confession (In Unison)

Lord, I confess that you are the giver of all that is good and perfect. Today, I bring you my offering as a part of my spiritual worship. As a good steward, I give you my mind, my matter and my money. I give by faith and not out of fear. Lord, let your spirit guide me to sow bountifully, give cheerfully, and tithe faithfully. Let the fruits of my righteousness be increased through my giving; and may your kingdom be advanced through the collection of the saints. This is my confession.

In Jesus name, Amen!

The Blood Will Never Lose Its Power (1st Sunday)

The blood that Jesus shed for me,
Way back on Calvary
The blood that gives me strength, From day to day
It will never lose its power.

It reaches to the highest mountain,
And it flows to the lowest valley.
The blood that gives me strength, From day to day,
It will never lose its power.

It soothes my doubts and calms my fears,
And it dries all my tears.
The blood that gives me strength, From day to day,
It will never lose its power.

It reaches to the highest mountain,
And it flows to the lowest valley.
The blood that gives me strength, From day to day,
It will never lose its power.

(Refrain)

How Great Is Our God (2nd Sunday)

How great is our God,
Sing with me
How great is our God
and all will see
How great, how great is our God
-REPEAT

Name above all names
Worthy of our praise
My heart will sing
How great is our God
-REPEAT

[REPEAT ALL]

Praise Him (3rd Sunday)

Praise him, praise him, praise him, praise him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.

From the rising of the sun
until the going down of the same,
he's worthy, Jesus is worthy,
he's worthy to be praised.

(Repeat Praise Him stanza)

God is our rock,
rock of salvation;
A strong deliverer,
in him will I always trust.

Glory! Glory! In all things give him glory.
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.

(Repeat Glory stanza)

I'm So Glad Jesus Lifted Me (5th Sunday)

I'm so glad Jesus lifted me.
I'm so glad Jesus lifted me.
I'm so glad Jesus lifted me,
singing glory, hallelujah! Jesus lifted me.

Satan had me bound; Jesus lifted me.
Satan had me bound; Jesus lifted me.
Satan had me bound; Jesus lifted me,
singing glory, hallelujah! Jesus lifted me.

When I was in trouble, Jesus lifted me.
When I was in trouble, Jesus lifted me.
When I was in trouble, Jesus lifted me,
singing glory, hallelujah! Jesus lifted me.

Our Church Covenant (1st Sunday)

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, Angels and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church - in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place of comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage, that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church where we can carry out the Spirit of this covenant and the principle of God's word.

And now unto Him, who brought again from the dead, our Lord Jesus, be Power and Glory forever.

"One Lord, One Faith and One Baptism," AMEN. (Eph. 4:5)

EASY Crescent Roll Apple Dumplings

Ingredients

- 2 cans refrigerated crescent roll dough
- 2 sticks of butter
- 1-1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 tsp cinnamon or to taste
- 1 12oz can 7Up (or Mountain Dew)
- 2 lrg Granny Smith apples, peeled & cored

Make it a new Thanksgiving staple!

Instructions

- Preheat oven to 350 degrees F.
- Wash the apples, peel and cut into eight equal slices.
- Unwrap the crescent rolls and separate into 8 triangles.
- Place a piece of apple on each triangle of dough (on a wider side) and roll it in a croissant.
- Butter a 13 x 9-inch baking dish.
- In a separate bowl, combine the butter, cinnamon, sugar and vanilla, mix until you get a liquid mixture without lumps and pour over the rolls.
- Pour soda between rolls (but not over) and bake for 35-45 minutes, or until they become golden brown.
- Serve immediately with a scoop of vanilla ice cream, mmmmm... Ah-mazing !
