Leading with Love... Laboring in Unity

62 years of Ministry for the Master Ephesians 4: 11-16

Genesis 1:27 states that we are all created in God's Image, which means that we are blessed to be multifaceted in the same way that God's Glory is multifaceted.

We are a myriad of people who make up the Lamb of God congregation- all having different talent to offer. God made us different for many reasons and one was to build a church.

What are you really good at? Painting? Counseling? Maybe you're known as "Mr. Fix It" around the house, or you're an amazing chef or decorator.

Perhaps you just find opportunities to help people wherever you go. Whatever your talent or skill is, guess what? God's behind it!

He didn't bless anyone of us with a talent or skill simply to look awesome or earn a living.

In our next 62 years of existence as a congregation, let's remember that God wants us to steward our gifts for Him!

A Giver's Confession concerning the Lord's money...

Lord, I confess that you are the giver of all that is good and perfect. Today, I bring you my offering as a part of my spiritual worship. As a good steward, I give you my mind, my matter and my money. I give by faith and not out of fear. Lord, let your spirit guide me to sow bountifully, give cheerfully, and tithe faithfully.

Greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

March brings us into the heart of the Lenten season. It's a time of sacred reflection and sincere sacrifice as we celebrate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. March also marks our church's anniversary. Both occasions provide an opportunity to renew our focus and recalibrate our faith by reinforcing the foundation of hope that brought us this far.

Our theme for both the year and anniversary is, Leading with Love...Laboring in Unity. Love is the foundation for our faith in Jesus Christ. The love of Christ compelled a small group of saints to pray along with Rev. James A. Lathan and form St. Mary's Missionary Baptist Church 62 years ago. The love of Christ helped to lead our congregation into new pastures when Rev. Lawrence Presley led the ministry from 4th and Center to 84th and Bradley Road. From then until now, the love of Jesus Christ keeps lifting us to new levels of leadership in this community.

Church anniversaries can cause one to say, "Been there, done that." I pray this won't be our mindset. In the week-to-week engagement of ministry, it's easy to lose sight of the bigger picture. Nevertheless, our shared labor and destiny gives purpose to our many meetings, hard work and sincere worship. This is an important time in the life of our church... a time to celebrate while also challenging our methods and crystallizing our message.

Beloved of God, I am praying that you are led to lead others to an encounter with Christ; an encounter that transforms the hurting, helpless and even the hopeless. I believe He will do it, but we must do our part and continue to pray that the Holy Spirit bolsters our faith with excitement and enthusiasm.

The old saints used to sing, "I'm glad to be in the service." Let God's goodness lead you to a blessed state of gratefulness and gladness this season. If those things guide your attitude, God will lift you to a whole new altitude.

Blessings,

Christopher R. Boston, Pastor

Unisonous Scripture Readings

1st Sunday

Servants of Christ

— 1 Corinthians 11:23-28—

23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread,

24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

25 In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

26 For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

27 So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.

28 Everyone ought to examine themselves before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup.

3rd Sunday Peace and Hope

—Romans 5:1-5—

1 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God.

3 Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance;

4 perseverance, character; and character, hope.

5 And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

4th Sunday

Hosanna to the Highest

—Matthew 21:6-11—

6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.

7 They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on.

8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David! ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!’ Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

10 When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?”

11 The crowds answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Glory To His Name

Down at the cross where my Savior died,
Down where for cleansing from sin I cried,
There to my heart was the blood applied,
Glory to His Name!

[Chorus]

Glory to His Name.

Glory to His Name.

There to my heart was the blood applied,
Glory to His Name!

I am so wondrously saved from sin,
Jesus so sweetly abides within,
There at the cross where He took me in,
Glory to His Name! [Chorus]

Oh, precious fountain that saves from sin,
I am so glad I have entered in,
There Jesus saves me and keeps me clean,
Glory to His Name! [Chorus]

Come to this fountain so rich and sweet,
Cast thy poor soul at the Savior's feet,
Plunge in today, and be made complete,
Glory to His Name! [Chorus]

Praise Him

Praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, praise Him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, He's worthy to be praised.

From the rising of the sun
until the going down of the same,
He's worthy, Jesus is worthy,
He's worthy to be praised.

(Repeat Praise Him stanza)

God is our rock,
Rock of salvation;
A strong deliverer,
In him will I always trust.

Glory! Glory! In all things give Him glory.
Jesus, blessed Savior, He's worthy to be praised.

Love Languages Encouraging Healthy Relationships

Love has a significant role in your life. It is not only shared between spouses but amongst a close circle of friends or immediate and extended family.

Everyone speaks their own language and the key to a healthy relationship between two people is understanding that love language.

Words of Affirmation:

Kind words and encouraging statements.
Ephesians 4:29

Acts of Service: Serve or offer service to someone you care about. Romans 12:9-13

Quality Time: Requires focus and one's undivided attention. Focus on quality conversation.

Our Church Covenant (1st Sunday)

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, Angels and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church - in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place of comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain it's worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage, that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church where we can carry out the Spirit of this covenant and the principle of God's word.

And now unto Him, who brought again from the dead, our Lord Jesus, be Power and Glory forever.

"One Lord, One Faith and One Baptism," AMEN. (Eph. 4:5)

Are You Still Inseperable?

It's a timely question to ask as Black Marriage Day approaches on Sunday, March 25th.

One of the most common misconceptions about relationships is they're effortless once you find the right person.

This other person should know what to do to make you happy and be up for the challenge at all times. The only "work" would be finding the one whom you're supposed to be with. This is often the type of thinking that causes people to leave relationships or marriages too soon.

Everything takes work, and in order for a relationship to maintain its youthfulness you have to invest more than time, years and commitment on paper. Consider these six tips to help keep the flames burning...

1. Find one thing that you appreciate about your mate and show them why.
2. Verbalize when things seem to be going off course.
3. Kiss often! This intimate act helps to remind us why we fell in love.
4. Be silly together.
5. Travel together as much as you can, even if it's just to the grocery store.
6. Just be! Live in the moment by sharing time simply doing nothing.
