Bold Faith for a Blessed Future

Acts 4:23-33

There is something truly beautiful, inviting, and compelling about a person who spends time with Jesus. That person is empowered by His spirit, and given courage to walk in bold faith and confident assurance. That person is convinced Jesus is who He said He is, and that He can do what He said He can do.

The only way to know Jesus in this personal way and have this kind of bold faith is to spend time in His presence and Word. And the only way the world around us will know about Him is to see Jesus in and through us.

No matter your background experiences including, education level, skill set, personality, training, or even the mistakes you've made in the past, God has a plan to use you in a mighty way to point people to Jesus. God wants to use our ordinary and unlikely lives to accomplish His purpose in the earth. He will qualify and equip us to do what He has called us to do, and go where He has called us to go.

Let's amaze the world simply by being known as someone who has been with Jesus and is filled with His spirit. This commitment level develops character, an authentic anointing, and the courage to walk in bold faith...

In Jesus' name, Amen.

A Giver's Confession concerning the Lord's money...

Lord, I confess that you are the giver of all that is good and perfect. Today, I bring you my offering as a part of my spiritual worship. As a good steward, I give you my mind, my matter and my money. I give by faith and not out of fear. Lord, let your spirit guide me to sow bountifully, give cheerfully, and tithe faithfully.

Greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Anniversaries are always special. Whether a birthday or a wedding, they serve as moments to mark the blessing of progression and growth from year to year. March is our Church Anniversary and we are blessed to see 63 years of ministry. This is a moment to celebrate. Whether you've been here throughout our entire history or you're new to the family, the Church Anniversary is a time to thank God for the inspiration and influence of His spirit through our congregation.

History and destiny go hand-in-hand. While it's true that it's not how you start but how you finish, you can't have a finish unless you have a start. I marvel at the faith of those Christian soldiers who established this church. Milwaukee had many wonderful churches in 1956: Calvary, Metropolitan, Mt. Zion, New Hope and Tabernacle to name a few. These congregations were strong then and remain so today. Nevertheless, God called a few committed saints to establish this church as a foundation of faith for generations to come. From our inception as St. Mary's Missionary Baptist Church to now as Lamb of God... from the service, sacrifice and stewardship of our founding pastor, Rev. James Lathan, to our longest serving pastor, Rev. Lawrence E. Presley... and by the hands of our many faithful and dedicated servants, we are poised and positioned to move towards a glorious destiny.

There's a song that says, "For the world is hungry for the living bread, lift the Savior up for them to see." This speaks imperatively to what is required of The Lamb – to offer the living bread of Jesus Christ to the world. For only the living bread of a loving Savior will satisfy the longing soul!

Happy anniversary to The Lamb! As we look back with a sense of appreciation, let us look up and ahead with God-directed worship, witness and work to impact the world around us for the cause of Christ!

In His Service,

Christopher R. Boston, Pastor

Unisonous Scripture Readings

1st Sunday

Instituting the Lord's Supper

—Matthew 26:26-30—

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

27 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you.

28 For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

3rd Sunday

Wait on the Lord

—Isaiah 40:28-31—

28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable.

29 He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall,

31 But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles; They shall run and not be weary; They shall walk and not faint.

4th Sunday

Meditate on These Things

—Philippians 4:4-9—

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!

5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God;

7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.

9 The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Praise Him

Praise Him, praise Him, praise Him, praise Him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, He's worthy to be praised.

From the rising of the sun
Until the going down of the same,
He's worthy, Jesus is worthy,
He's worthy to be praised.

(Repeat Praise Him stanza)

God is our rock,
Rock of salvation;
A strong deliverer,
In Him will I always trust.

Glory! Glory! In all things give Him glory.
Jesus, blessed Savior, He's worthy to be praised.

(Repeat Glory stanza)

O Give Thanks Unto the Lord

Oh give thanks unto the Lord
For He is good, yes He is good
(Repeat)

For He is worthy, worthy
For He is good, yes He is good
(Repeat)

Oh give thanks unto the Lord
For He is good, yes He is good
(Repeat)

For He is worthy, worthy
For He is good, yes He is good
(Repeat)

For He is good, yes He is good

4th Sunday

I am on the Battlefield for My Lord

(Chorus)

I am on the battlefield for my Lord.
I am on the battlefield for my Lord,
And I promised Him that I
Would serve Him 'til I die;
I am on the battlefield for my Lord.

I was alone and idle, I was a sinner too.
I heard a voice from heaven say there is work to do.
I took the Master's hand, and I joined the Christian band;
I am on the battlefield for my Lord.
(Chorus)

I left my friends and kindred bound for the Promised Land,
The grace of God upon me, the Bible in my hands.
In distant lands I trod, crying sinner come to God;
I am on the battlefield for my Lord.
(Chorus)

Now when I met my Savior, I met Him with a smile,
He healed my wounded spirit, and owned me as His child.
Around the throne of grace, He appoints my soul a place;
I am on the battlefield for my Lord.
(Chorus)

Our Church Covenant (1st Sunday)

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, Angels and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church - in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place of comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain it's worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage, that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church where we can carry out the Spirit of this covenant and the principle of God's word.

And now unto Him, who brought again from the dead, our Lord Jesus, be Power and Glory forever.

"One Lord, One Faith and One Baptism," AMEN. (Eph. 4:5)

Women's History Month

Visionary Women: Champions of Peace & Nonviolence

This year we honor women who have led efforts to end war, violence, and injustice and pioneered the use of nonviolence to change society. For generations, women have resolved conflicts in their homes, schools, and communities. They have rejected violence as counterproductive and stressed the need to restore, respect, and reduce the causes of conflict as the surest way to peace. From legal defense and public education to direct action and civil disobedience, women have expanded the American tradition of using inclusive, democratic and active means to promote the common good. They have given voice to the unrepresented and hope to victims of violence and those who dream of a peaceful world.
